

Application Developer

General responsibilities: Development of and support for applications including but not limited to websites (including responsive websites), mobile, etc. with a high degree of usability.

Specific operating responsibilities:

- Participate in the entire software development lifecycle in a wide variety of applications using best practices
- Create and support applications in collaboration with customers and other personnel with a focus on usability
- Support and management of websites for products and e-commerce
- Work with IT Admin to update and maintain host servers
- Usability test projects and make refinements based on usability results
- Work within a production schedule and a budget to meet deadlines and manage resources
- Periodically assist with help desk support
- Manage multiple projects simultaneously
- Other duties as assigned

Knowledge and Skills:

- Degree in computer science, information systems, or equivalent work experience
- Knowledge of a wide variety of languages including, but not limited to C#, ColdFusion, Java, PHP
- Knowledge of various frameworks and libraries (ASP.Net, Bootstrap, jQuery)
- Knowledge of SQL databases (MS-SQL, MySQL)
- Knowledge of Javascript, jQuery, HTML, and CSS
- Experience with latest web design best practices and trends (Responsive Design)
- Mobile application development (iOS, Android) a plus
- Experience with Photoshop/GIMP a plus
- Knowledge of Google Analytics a plus
- Key qualities are attention to detail, excellent communication, creative thinking, flexibility, teamwork, positive attitude, and a passion for learning new and exciting technologies

Please send resume with cover letter and/or COVER VIDEO to: humanresources@smp.org