

Has It Ever Happened to You?

Interview an adult by reading to them the summary below and then by asking the questions that follow. Record their answers after each question.

Summary: In my religion class, we are reading about how Rebecca tricked her husband by having Jacob pose as his brother, Esau. They did this because Rebecca liked her son Jacob more and wanted him to receive the inheritance that rightfully belonged to her older son, Esau.

1. When have you been cheated or wronged by someone playing favorites? What were the circumstances?

2. How did being cheated or wronged make you feel? angry? sad? envious?

3. Was there any good that came from being wronged?

4. To what degree do you see God in the whole experience?

