

seeing with faith, acting in faith

Read the two pieces of writing below thoughtfully and carefully.

Earth's crammed with heaven,
And every common bush afire with God;
But only he who sees, takes off his shoes,
The rest sit round it and pluck blackberries.
(Elizabeth Barrett Browning)

A child was frightened of the dark. Her father told her that God was looking over her and would take care of her. The child said she wanted someone near who had skin on.

