

The Miracles of Jesus

Below are listed fifteen Gospel accounts of miracles performed by Jesus. Complete this exercise as follows:

- First, identify the miracle stories with which you are familiar (you may need to look up Gospel passages cited) and circle the number in front of those stories.
- Of those identified as familiar, choose the five miracles that you like the most or have found the most meaningful. Write their numbers in row A.
- Next, from the five miracles, select the three that are most meaningful for you and write their numbers in row B.
- Finally, choose your favorite miracle story of those three and write its number in row C.

1. The cure of a leper (Matthew 8:1–4)
2. The cure of the centurion’s servant (Matthew 8:5–13)
3. The cure of two blind men (Matthew 9:27–31)
4. The cure of the epileptic boy (Matthew 17:14–20)
5. The barren fig tree (Matthew 21:18–22)
6. The calming of the storm (Mark 4:35–41)
7. The daughter of Jairus (Mark 5:21–24, 35–43)
8. Jesus walking on the water (Mark 6:45–52)
