

Leadership Statements

Following is a possible list of statements to be used in the step 9 learning experience:

- To be a leader is to be a ruler of a group of people.
- If you are in charge of a group of people, you can control their actions and opinions.
- Good leaders listen to their people and try to do what is best for those people.
- Leaders know exactly where they are leading their followers at all times.
- Leadership can be learned.
- You are born with leadership characteristics.
- God is omniscient and therefore knows who will make a good leader.
- God always chooses people who are obviously going to be great leaders.
- God sometimes chooses leaders from the most unlikely places.
- You must be popular to be a good leader.
- God always calls the gifted.
- God always gifts the called.
- Jacob was an ideal choice to lead Israel.
- Moses was an obvious choice to lead the Israelites out of Egypt.
- The characteristics of leaders should change based on the situations they find themselves in.

