

HONORING FAMILY

The Church is the family of God. Just as the Church calls us to love and serve one another, we are called to love and serve the members of our family. Read or review chapter 35 of The Catholic Connections Handbook. Then finish the statements below. To find out if your answers are correct, check for each of your answers in the word search. Put the unused letters from the word search in order using the spaces at the bottom of the page to spell out a fact about family. There will be unused letters at the end of the word search.
