

A Letter to God

One way to talk to God is to write a letter. Letters have a long tradition in Christianity, beginning with the letters of Saint Paul. In one of them he wrote to his early converts, "You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by all, shown to be a letter of Christ" (2 Corinthians 3:2). A letter represents and expresses the person who wrote it. May all of our spoken and written messages represent and express Christ to others!

Spend a few minutes in quiet prayer and thought, then express your needs and hopes to God.

Dear God,

Love,

(write your name here)

(The scriptural quotation on this handout is from the New American Bible, revised edition © 2010, 1991, 1986, 1970 Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc., Washington, D.C. All Rights Reserved. No part of this work may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, or by any information retrieval system, without permission in writing from the copyright owners.)

