

RESPECTING TRUTH AND PROPERTY

The Commandments, "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness," and "You shall not covet your neighbor's goods" call us to respect truth and property. Read or review chapter 37 of The Catholic Connections Handbook. Then finish the statements below. To find out if your answers are correct, check for each of your answers in the word search and cross them off. Put the unused letters from the word search in order using the spaces at the bottom of the page to complete the statement. There will be extra letters at the end of the word search.

1. The ____ Commandment forbids taking others belongings without their permission. (7 letters)
2. Cheating, such as copying from someone else's test, is a form of _____. (8 letters)
3. When we illegally ____ music, we are stealing from the band that created that music. (8 letters)
4. If someone takes what is not theirs, he or she should make _____, which means returning what was taken. (11 letters)
5. _____ means somehow fixing or replacing something we have damaged. (10 letters)
6. We are called to be fair in the way we share earthly _____ and the fruits of human labor. (5 letters)
7. _____ is a word that means to become obsessed with what others have. (5 letters, see page 429)
8. The unhealthy desire for wealth and power is forbidden by the ____ Commandment. (5 letters)
9. _____, one of the capital sins, is a jealousy about the things other people have to a point of wanting their stuff yourself. (4 letters)
10. We must let go of our desire for riches if we are to enter God's _____. (7 letters)
11. The Eighth Commandment is about practicing the virtue of _____. (12 letters)
12. Spreading _____ lessens the honor and reputation of the person talked about and is sinful. (6 letters)

The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation restores our relationship with God, and can help us in the . . .

SOLUTION—RESPECTING TRUTH AND PROPERTY

1. SEVENTH
2. STEALING
3. DOWNLOAD
4. RESTITUTION
5. REPARATION
6. GOODS
7. COVET
8. TENTH
9. ENVY
10. KINGDOM
11. TRUTHFULNESS
12. GOSSIP

The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation restores our relationship with God, and can help us in the . . .

hard work of making things right with the people we have hurt.

