

Matthew, Mark, or Luke?

The following verses are taken from the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Write the name of the correct evangelist in front of the verse. Remember that Matthew portrays Jesus as the Perfect Teacher, Luke portrays him as the Compassionate Savior, and Mark portrays him as the Suffering Servant. Articles 56, 57, and 58 in your book also describe other characteristics of each Gospel, which will help you in your choices.

1. _____ "She, from her poverty, contributed all she had."
2. _____ "He was moved with pity for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.'"
3. _____ "I have come not to abolish but fulfill."
4. _____ "Blessed are the poor in spirit."
5. _____ "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him."
6. _____ "The rich he has sent away empty."
7. _____ "The Son of Man has come to seek and save what was lost."
8. _____ "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites."
9. _____ "For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."
10. _____ "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith."

Look through the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and find other passages illustrating the characteristics of these Gospels. Create a similar activity on a separate sheet of paper, with blanks to be filled in as above. Write the complete references to the verses on the back of the paper. Hand it in to your teacher. Your teacher may then use your activity to stump your classmates!
