

Stewards of Creation

As the summit of God's creation, we have an obligation to care for the creatures in the world and for the environment. In the space provided, write some things you do now to care for creation. Then think about some changes you can make in your choices and actions to show care for creation and to protect the environment.

Ways I care for creation:

Some changes I can make to better protect creation:

Now find a Scripture passage from the Book of Genesis or another book of the Bible that can serve as a motto or reminder for you to be a good steward of creation. Be sure to include a Scripture citation with your selected passage. Explain how this passage is a good reminder of our call to be stewards of creation.
