68	It is truly right that with full hearts and minds and voices we should praise the unseen God, the all-powerful Father, and his only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. For Christ has ransomed us with his blood, and paid for us the price of Adam’s sin to our eternal Father! This is our Passover feast, when Christ, the true Lamb, is slain, whose blood consecrates the homes of all believers. This is the night when first you saved our fathers; you freed the people of Israel from their slavery . . . This is the night when Christians everywhere, washed clean of sin and freed from all defilement, are restored to grace and grow together in holiness.	It is truly right and just, with ardent love of mind and heart and with devoted service of our voice, to acclaim our God invisible, the almighty Father, and Jesus Christ, our Lord, his Son, his Only-Begotten. Who for our sake paid Adam’s debt to the eternal Father, and, pouring out his own dear Blood wiped clean the record of our ancient sinfulness. These, then, are the feasts of Passover, in which is slain the Lamb, the one true Lamb, whose Blood anoints the doorposts of believers. This is the night, when once you led our forebears, Israel’s children, from slavery . . . This is the night that even now, throughout the world, sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices and from the gloom of sin, leading them to
