

Chapter 30 Activity: Scriptural Charades

In mime with another person, pretend to discuss something very interesting. Show emotions such as shock, anger, confusion, and sadness.	In mime with another person, pretend to explain and teach something about the Bible.
In mime with another person, pretend to be surprised by a question that person asks you.	In mime with another person, pretend to invite that person to dinner.
In mime with two other people, pretend to be curious about what they are discussing.	In mime with another person, pretend to say a blessing over some bread and break off a piece of it to give to the other person.
In mime with another person, pretend to tell a great tale about an amazing event.	In mime with another person, pretend to suddenly see something amazing and unbelievable.
In mime with another person, pretend to receive some sad and disheartening news.	In mime with another person, pretend to announce some great news.

