

I Have a Mission

by John Henry Cardinal Newman

God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me, which he has not committed to another. I have a mission—I may never know it in this life; but I should be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, and a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good. I shall be an angel of peace. A preacher of truth in my own place. While not intending it—if I do but keep my commandments. Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what he is about. He may take away my friends; he may throw me among strangers; he may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me—still he knows what he is about. Therefore, I will trust him.
