

My Charisms

Define charism:

List five people who have what might be called ordinary charisms. Identify each person and her or his charism.

List five people who have what might be called religious charisms. Identify each person and his or her charism.

In two or three paragraphs, describe a person in your life who exhibits charisms that combine the ordinary and the religious. Look for someone who is trying hard to use her or his God-given charisms to help others.

