

Discovering God in Creation

In the space to the left of each discovery of God, write the letter of the type of discovery that best describes it.

- a. discovering God in daily life
- b. discovering God in the faith of others
- c. discovering God in the natural world
- d. discovering God through the human intellect

- _____ 1. "I see and talk with several homeless people each day, and because of this, I am beginning to understand how we can find Jesus in the poor."
- _____ 2. "Studying physics has strengthened my faith. Who else but God could have made up these laws of nature?"
- _____ 3. "I went on a retreat and heard a senior talk about her faith. She was so comfortable with it that I thought to myself, 'I should put more time into my relationship with God.'"
- _____ 4. "Every time I try to cool off instead of yelling at my little brother, I realize that I am doing something for God too."
- _____ 5. "No matter how much stress I carry in my life, I find that walking by the water brings me a sense of peace and God's presence."
- _____ 6. "My older brother suffers from depression. He struggles every day to keep going. Even though he does not see himself this way, he is the most inspirational, faith-filled person I know."
- _____ 7. "A friend forwarded me a Scripture passage from an online service that sends him Scripture quotes every day. His commitment to God impressed me."
- _____ 8. "My dad is brilliant. If he believes in God, I find it hard not to."
- _____ 9. "We did a report about a saint, and I was pretty impressed that Saint Catherine of Siena was a peace broker in her time. If she could get that strength from God, then maybe I can too."
- _____ 10. "When I am at Mass with my family, I get to thinking, 'The Eucharist is truly a source of strength in my life!'"
