

WORKING FOR JUSTICE

As chapter 39 in The Catholic Connections Handbook points out, “Catholic social teaching has been called our Church’s best-kept secret, but its wisdom comes alive when we learn it and live it.” After reading or reviewing chapter 39, complete this crossword.

ACROSS

1. A popular slogan in Haiti ends with “all together we are the flood of ____.” (p. 452)
4. This is the abbreviation for the Catholic organization that works on a global level against injustice. (p. 452)
6. ____ justice is a respect for all creation and human rights. (p. 447)
10. Each person has God-given _____. (p. 451)
11. Pope Paul VI taught us, “If you want _____, work for Justice.” (p. 455)
12. Justice means that we must care for the earth and be good _____ of all creation. (pp. 455–456)
15. “_____ for the poor and vulnerable” means that the Church must get involved when people’s rights or well-being are being damaged. (pp. 453–454)
16. We should see _____ in other people, whether they are friends or strangers. (pp. 448–449)
18. We need respect and freedom to shape our own _____. (p. 448)

DOWN

2. Workers should have fair wages, the right to join _____, and the ability to start their own businesses. (p. 454)
3. This happens when all people have the opportunity to fulfill all their needs fully and easily. (2 words, p. 449)
4. This means working to meet people’s immediate physical needs. (p. 448)
5. Work is more than a means for a paycheck; it is the way we join God in the work of _____. (p. 454)
7. Living in _____ means not only that we share our material goods through charity but also our friendship and prayers with others. (p. 455)
8. We must follow the example of the Holy Trinity by being a _____ that loves and cares for all. (p. 447)
9. Service and justice have been referred to as the “Two _____” on which we should walk to ensure the dignity of all people. (p. 454)
10. St. Vincent _____ was a priest in the 1600s who worked for charity and justice, and now has an organization named for him. (p. 451)
13. Dorothy Day and Peter Maurin founded The Catholic _____, a newspaper and organization that promotes principles of justice. (pp. 456–457)
14. Human laws must never require people to do anything against _____ law. (p. 450)
17. It is a social _____ when the gap between the rich and the poor is so great that some live in luxury while others go without the basics. (p. 453)

SOLUTION—WORKING FOR JUSTICE

