

Monks

1. Look at the picture at this station.
2. Write words that describe the actions you see in the picture.
3. Write words that describe the relationships between people you see in the picture.
4. In Thailand young monks beg by the side of the road, and laypeople give them prepared food. All the food is brought back to the community, mixed together, and then eaten. What does this say about how the monks regard experience of taste? What does it say about communal life?
