

Our Culture, Our Selves

Each of us is a product of our environment to some degree. The things we experience, the people we meet, and society in general all combine to make us who we are.

Below are fifteen items that may affect your life in some way. In column A, rank the items in order of their importance in your life now, putting a 1 next to the item that influences you most, a 2 by the second most influential item, all the way to a 15 for the item you consider least important in your life right now. Take your time, and be honest!
