

A Living Sign of Hope

We believe that because we are transformed by faith in the Risen Jesus, his presence in the world becomes more visible through us. Read the following statements that are based on Jesus' teachings, and then answer the questions that follow. Give examples of both individual and societal responses that we can make.

Jesus taught that God's love for us has no limits. What are some of the ways that we can help to make God's unlimited love more visible in the world?

Jesus said that we can find fulfillment only by loving God above all things and by serving others. What specific things can we do to become more fulfilled and to help others experience fulfillment?

Jesus taught that forgiveness is more powerful and Godlike than revenge. How can we show the world the power of God's forgiveness?

Jesus taught that the rich must share with the poor. In what ways can we apply this teaching in the world today?

Jesus taught that we must refuse to accept prejudices that separate us. What are some divisive attitudes and beliefs that exist in today's world, and how can we help to heal them?

