

Name _____

Chapter 7 Quiz

Write the letter that corresponds to the best answer choice in the space provided.

- _____ 1. Which of these reflects the understanding of “power from action”?
- a. the power to direct and command others because of your office or position
 - b. the power to affect other people's attitudes and decisions because of the relationship you have built with them
 - c. the power to teach and explain how to earn salvation
 - d. the power to take the initiative to make things happen or to inspire people with your actions
- _____ 2. What does Jesus teach us about power in the Paschal Mystery?
- a. Love is not powerful; it makes a person vulnerable and weak.
 - b. True strength is power used in and with loving sacrifice.
 - c. Failure is the only true measure of our actions.
 - d. Power that comes from authority must be the primary basis for authentic love in relationships.
- _____ 3. What is the “Paradox of the Cross”?
- a. People in polytheistic religions regularly offered sacrifices to a particular god in hope that this god would grant the people what they desired, but they never got what they wanted.
 - b. Christians preached that the shameful execution of Jesus was actually Christ's hour of glory.
 - c. If the worshippers of a particular god were defeated in battle, they would sometimes start worshipping the god of the people who defeated them, even though they were enemies.
 - d. Saint Paul spoke of God as foolish, which was the opposite of what most expected him to write.
- _____ 4. What truth did Saint Paul explain in his epistles?
- a. Because we are saved by God's grace, it does not matter how we act.
 - b. Because God's grace is offered freely to everyone, we are puppets that God will manipulate if we accept the gift of faith.
 - c. Although Jesus did not personally experience loss or pain, we can still follow his example of selflessness.
 - d. God's grace leads us toward the death of sin and our rising in new life.
- _____ 5. What is meant by “justification”?
- a. the removal of sin and the gift of God's sanctifying grace to renew holiness
 - b. the work of salvation accomplished mainly through Christ's Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension
 - c. the habitual and firm disposition to do good and earn salvation
 - d. the self-emptying of being humble and obedient

- _____ 6. Which of the following best reflects what the Church teaches about the body and the soul?
- a. The body and the soul are two separate natures that are united together.
 - b. Each human being is a union of body and soul—physical matter and spirit.
 - c. The body is merely an enclosure for the soul.
 - d. Every aspect of being human is sacred, but our souls are more sacred than our bodies.
- _____ 7. What did Saint Paul teach about the resurrection of the dead?
- a. If there is no resurrection of the dead, there is no reason to be good.
 - b. Because belief in the resurrection of the dead is not as important as belief in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, it is an optional belief.
 - c. Our resurrected bodies will be the exact same size, shape, and appearance as our mortal bodies.
 - d. Our pre-resurrection bodies are bad, but our resurrected bodies will be good.
- _____ 8. What are the Cardinal Virtues?
- a. faith, hope, love, and justice
 - b. mercy, peace, patience, and joy
 - c. prudence, fortitude, temperance, and justice
 - d. humility, integrity, generosity, and creativity
- _____ 9. When Jesus prays “that they may be one,” what model of unity did he offer?
- a. many parts, one body
 - b. the sheep and the goats
 - c. the Trinity
 - d. a shepherd and sheep
- _____ 10. What is the best description of empathy?
- a. the ability to recognize and share the emotions of another person
 - b. feeling sorry for another person who is suffering
 - c. our connection with others
 - d. the ultimate community that leads us toward union with God

