One of a Kind, Created by God

What makes you “one of a kind”? Is it a physical quality? Is it a rare or unusual talent? God made each of us unique—or one of a kind. We have different talents and different personalities. We look different, react differently.

One of us is a child of God, but we become part of the Body of Christ at our Baptism. The Body of Christ is just another name for our Church—and Jesus is its head! Our priests, our families, our saints, everyone who is baptized are all part of the Body of Christ.

Like our body needs each part to work properly, the Body of Christ needs each of us to work the way it should. The Body of Christ is diverse because it is filled with unique people who can do many different things well. Diversity makes the Church better because each of us has an important place in the Church. No one else can serve in exactly the same way. By using our gifts and becoming the best people we can be, we help make the Body of Christ strong.

Remember: We are Church all the time, not just in Sunday Mass. When you are at the playground, when you told the family that chores, you want you to be and do in the same way.

The Body of Christ is diverse because it is filled with unique people who can do many different things well. Diversity makes the Church better because each of us has an important place in the Church. We Are Priestly People Think about your parish priest. What qualities make him a good priest? The role of a priest is to make things holy through his words and actions. When do you see your priest making your parish holy? How does he do so?

Priests, along with deacons and bishops, are men who have been ordained. That means they have received the Sacrament of Holy Orders, which marks them specially for service to the Church. Ordained men have chosen to live their lives in service to God’s people in a special way. For example, only ordained men can celebrate the sacraments with us, such as hearing confessions, celebrating the Eucharist, and anointing the sick.

Women cannot receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders, but women can also choose to serve God in a special way by joining a religious order. Nuns and sisters promise to serve God with their lives too.

But as today’s reading explains, all of us—men and women, children and grown-ups—are priestly people. We are living stones who build God’s spiritual temple here on Earth. We become priestly people through our Baptism. Baptism makes us part of the Church and calls us to do God’s work. We make life holy by serving God and working to make the world better.

Look at the people you see every day: your family, friends, and teachers. Can you spot some ways they are making life holy today?

Make the World a Better Place

When you are kind to someone, read the Bible, pray for other people, feed the hungry, and go to Mass—you are doing God’s work! You might think that only grown-ups can do God’s work. But all of us in the Church—young and old, male and female—can make the world a better place by using our gifts in helpful ways.

God’s grace is what gives us the ability to do his work here on Earth. He has given each of us unique abilities that help us serve him and serve others in different ways. We call these abilities “gifts” because everything that makes us who we are is a gift from God.

As you have been learning in previous lessons, Baptism makes each of us part of the Church. In Baptism, we become living stones that help build the Kingdom of God. Saint Paul reminds us in today’s Scripture that God wants us to share his goodness and his gifts freely and generously. Belonging to the Church means we help others, and we allow others to help us.

To use our gifts to serve others, it is important that we know what our gifts are. What is one unique gift that God has given you? How can you use that gift to do God’s work this week?

Key Word

gifts God-given abilities or talents that help us serve him and make the world a better place.

2. Why should we share our gifts?
3. Why do we call them gifts?

One of a Kind, Created by God

In a very old and much-loved hymn, we sing, “Praise God from whom all blessings flow!” What does this mean? We are saying that everything, every blessing, comes from God—and we praise him for it! When we praise God, we honor him above all else, just for being God.

Today’s reading from the Book of Psalms is another song of praise to God. The Book of Psalms in the Old Testament contains 150 psalms: songs, poems, and prayers written to God about many different situations. Psalm 104 is one of the psalms of praise to God.

Whenever God created something, he said it was good. We know that God cares for all of his creation, just as we care about the things we make. When we praise God for everything he has created, we are keeping wonder and awe in our minds and hearts.

God created the world just for us, and he entrusted us with caring for it. This is our responsibility. When we litter, throw away food, mistreat our clothes, and waste other resources, we are not caring for God’s creation! When we recycle, eat leftover food, and give to charity clothes we’ve outgrown, we are caring for all creation.

God believes in our ability to use our resources wisely and responsibly. What can you do this week to care for his creation?

Key Words

entrusted Gave someone a duty to care for something.

responsibility A duty that someone has given to us.

Love Is . . .

What does it mean to love someone? How do you feel when you know you are loved? What do you think love is? God’s love for us is enduring, or permanent. That means it never goes away! God created us out of love, and he gives us this love to carry with us always.

Some things we want bring us only temporary happiness—like a TV show or a cupcake. Temporary happiness doesn’t last. But God’s love is all we truly need. When we know the difference between things we want and things we need, we find deep peace. Peace is the calmness we carry deep inside us, even when life is difficult. We find peace when we have a joyful and thankful heart.

In today’s reading, Saint Paul tells us to rejoice because we are loved by God. Our response to his love is joy, or happiness. Rejoicing and having a good attitude are two ways to show God we are thankful for his love. Prayer is another important way we show our gratitude to God for what he has given us. Saint Paul tells us to have a thankful heart and not to worry when we pray. When we talk with God and thank him, we offer a prayer of thanksgiving.

The Mass is our greatest prayer of thanksgiving. The word Eucharist means “thanksgiving.” During the Mass, when we say “Amen,” we are telling God we are thankful. In your bedtime prayers tonight, tell God what you are thankful for today—and end with a big, heartfelt “Amen!”

We Belong to the Church

When you think about the Church, what comes to mind? Think about your parish building: its statues, altar, and decorations. Then think about what someone needs to know to understand our Church. Think about the people in our Church, and think about our teachings and beliefs.

The Church is made up of many different things—but it is more than just a building. We are the Church! We become part of the Church through Baptism. Baptism calls us to share in the mission of Jesus Christ: to share the Good News about God’s love and mercy for everyone. The Church guides us as followers of Jesus.

The leaders of our Church guide us in carrying out the mission Jesus gave us. As you learned in today’s reading, Jesus first handed on to Peter the authority to lead the Church. Peter was our first Pope. Each Pope since then—right up until today—is the successor who continues the work of Peter. Each Pope and his authority can be traced all the way back to Peter, more than two thousand years ago! The Pope—assisted by his bishops, priests, and deacons—helps us follow Christ as members of his Church.

What does it mean to you to follow Jesus as the Church? We celebrate the sacraments together. We praise God and pray for others through our worship at Mass. We try to help others by being kind, playing fair, doing good deeds, and sharing. Look back on the past week. How were you part of the Church this week?

Key Words

mission An important task or purpose that someone must fulfill.
successor Someone who follows another, often in a leadership role.

Check Your Calendar

Our Church celebrations are called liturgy. The Church calendar follows the Liturgical Year: all the daily, weekly, and seasonal celebrations that help us focus on important days in the life of Jesus and in our Church. The seasons of the liturgical year also use various colors. After reading about each liturgical season, color the liturgical calendar handout using the colors of each season.

1. Advent—purple. Advent begins the Church year. We prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth, and purple represents preparation.

2. Christmas season—white or gold. We celebrate Christmas for an entire season, ending in early January. White and gold signify newness, joy, and celebration.

3. Ordinary Time (short)—green. During Ordinary Time, we grow in faith by learning about Jesus' life and ministry. Green is the color for Ordinary Time because it is the color of hope and growth.

4. Lent—purple. Lent is another time of preparation. Purple also reminds us that Lent is a time of penance. During Lent, we remember Jesus’ sacrifice for us and prepare for Easter.

5. Easter Triduum—white. Triduum means “three days” and refers to Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Ask your child to leave this section white.

6. Easter season—white or gold. Once again, white and gold signify new life and joy, in this case because of the Resurrection. Easter is a fifty-day season on the Church calendar.

7. Pentecost—red. We use red to remind us of the coming of the Holy Spirit as tongues of fire at Pentecost.

8. Ordinary Time (long)—green. After Pentecost, we return to Ordinary Time, and the color green, to finish the Church year by learning about Jesus’ life and ministry.

Notice that our Church year is like a giant wheel. It helps us move forward to celebrate the life of Jesus Christ!

Key Words

Liturgical Year  The daily, weekly, and seasonal celebrations that help us focus on important days in the life of Jesus and in our Church; also called the Church year.

Lead by Example

Think of the leaders in your life: your teachers, coaches, and parents. What makes a good leader? When you have to do what a leader asks, what makes the leader easy or hard to follow?

Who is your local bishop? In our Church, the bishops are our leaders and teachers. Your bishop, and every bishop, reports to the Pope, who is their head. The bishops are our guides to Church teachings. We should listen and follow what the bishops teach us, because their authority goes all the way back to the first Pope: the Apostle Peter.

That is why we say the Church is Apostolic: Jesus passed his own authority on to Peter and the Apostles. They passed their authority to the bishops who came after them, and so on. This continues today! Even now, our bishops can trace their authority back to the Apostles. The bishops are supposed to study, preach, and lead by example—all the things Paul told Timothy to do in today’s reading.

But guess what? Paul’s instructions apply to all of us too, because we are part of the Body of Christ. Like Timothy, we should also be a good example to others. We should pray, study the Bible, and share what we learn with others.

We are never too young or too old to follow Jesus as his servants. Look around your own family. How are your parents and grandparents serving Jesus? How is the youngest child in your family serving Jesus? Finally, how can you serve Jesus today?

Key Words

Apostolic Based on or descending from the Apostles, Jesus’ first disciples.

Authority Power and responsibility to teach and guide people.

Think about all the things you do during a regular day. Do you make your bed in the morning? Do you listen and learn at school? Do you help friends in class or on the playground? Do you set or clear the table? Do you do homework? Everything that you can do is a gift from God. And everything you do is your work for God.

God has given each of us the great gift of life. God wants us to grow and learn. He wants us to care for and enjoy the world. He also gave us the responsibility to use our gifts for the good of all his creation. When we take care to do our best in whatever we do, we show God that we are thankful for all he has given to us.

But we can take this further by saying, “Thank you, Jesus,” whenever we perform some task. Today’s reading asks us to do everything in Jesus’ name. Doing something “in the name of” someone means “with the authority of” or “with the help of” that person.

It can be difficult to remember to do all things in the name of Christ. But the best way to develop a habit is to start! Begin small, and don’t worry if you forget sometimes. With practice, you will remember to do all things in Jesus’ name.

Pray Always

Lots of people wear safety equipment for their jobs. That means they have to check their gear routinely. Firefighters have to check their suits for holes, and baseball players check their batting helmets for cracks. Construction workers must make sure their shoes are strong and sturdy at all times. Even knights and warriors had to check their armor every day!

Today’s reading tells us how to clothe ourselves in spiritual armor. Spiritual armor protects us and keeps us strong in our faith. Spiritual armor surrounds us with the protection of Jesus Christ. But just like every worker who wears safety gear, we must take care of our armor. So how do we care for our spiritual armor?

Fortunately, Saint Paul gave us a list of good habits to develop. These help us take care of our spiritual armor by developing our relationship with God. Saint Paul reminds us to study the Bible and practice sharing the truth with others. We must develop faith, which can help us when we face difficulties.

And he says that prayer is our most important way to care for our spiritual armor. Prayer keeps us close to God. For us to do everything with Jesus’ help, we must pray as often as we can. We also need to ask others to pray for us, and we can offer prayers for other people. This is called intercessory prayer, meaning prayer that talks to God on behalf of someone else.

Who in your life needs extra prayers today? Take a moment to ask God to help. Then ask your patron saint to pray for you.

Key Word

intercessory prayer  Praying for others or asking others to pray for us.

One and Holy

In the Nicene Creed at Mass, we state our belief in “one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church” \textit{(Roman Missal)}. These are the \textbf{Marks of the Church}, or “key qualities of the Church.” In a later lesson, you will learn about being Catholic and Apostolic. But what does it mean to be One and Holy?

In today’s reading, we learn that Jesus prayed for us all to be one, united in our \textit{faith} in him. He wasn’t talking about just Catholics—he was talking about all Christians, everyone who believes in him. Baptism is one example of how we are one in faith with other Christians. Many Christian Churches, including the Catholic Church, baptize members in Christ. But Christians are not united in other ways. We have differing beliefs about the Bible, the sacraments, the Church, and some of Jesus’ teachings. To try to understand and work out our differences, leaders of many Christian faiths gather regularly to learn about one another’s beliefs, so we may become one as Jesus prayed.

Jesus also wants us to be holy: united with God, and loving God and one another. We can show our love for God and for everyone by being kind, loving, and patient. Patience, kindness, and love are qualities that come from being one with God and working to be holy.

Praying for unity and holiness is one way we can show our faith in Jesus. Make a cross on your forehead, lips, and heart, and ask God to help you be holy in your thoughts, words, and love.

A Community of Love

Every family has experienced the death of loved ones: grandparents, aunts and uncles, perhaps even cousins or other young relatives. As Christians, we find great comfort in knowing that our loved ones who have died are still part of our family. They also continue to be part of our Church family.

Our Church family, the Body of Christ, includes many more people than those we see at Mass. The Body of Christ includes the entire Communion of Saints: all baptized followers of Christ on Earth, in Heaven, and in Purgatory. Our Church is a community of love—all the faithful, living and dead.

So how can we show love for everyone as Jesus commanded us? We can pray for people who have died. We can also pray with the saints and with all who have died and now live with God in Heaven. At certain times during Mass, the priest reminds us that we pray with the saints and all those who have died in the faith. We honor all the saints on All Saints’ Day (November 1) and ask them to pray for us. On All Souls’ Day (November 2), we pray especially for all who have died. And we honor individual saints on feast days throughout the Church year.

Praying with the whole Church, living and dead, is one way we can share Jesus’ message of love. We show our unity in love when we receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion. What are some other ways you can show you are part of a community of love?

Key Words

Communion of Saints  The Church: all who have been baptized in Christ who now live on Earth, in Heaven, and in Purgatory.

Purgatory  A state of purification or cleansing that some people must undergo following death, before they can enter Heaven.

One of a Kind, Created by God

Think of some people in your life whom you love no matter what: perhaps parents, siblings, friends, or other special people. Now think of times when you have found it difficult to love someone. What made it difficult? What did you do?

How do you know someone is a loving person? Jesus is our most important example of a loving person. He never gave up on us. He even died for us, so that we could be saved.

In today’s reading, Saint Paul helps us understand the nature of true love. Showing love means more than just saying “I love you.” We must demonstrate love in all our actions. When we love others with patience, kindness, and forgiveness, we are like God. We are loving others just as God loves us.

Imagine that—when we show love by our words and actions, we are showing others God’s love! Showing God’s love is our responsibility as members of the Body of Christ, the Church. When we show love, we make Christ’s Body more loving. The next time you find it hard to love someone, call on the Holy Spirit to strengthen you. The Holy Spirit is always by our side, ready to guide us to be the loving people Jesus commanded us to be.

Put the “Solid” in Solidarity

You have been learning that God is love, and the Church is a community of love. Think back on what you know about Jesus, life and teachings. What are some examples of Jesus showing us God’s love?

Having faith in God means we believe what Jesus told us—and showed us—about God. In today’s reading, Saint James says that if we have faith in God, we must keep that faith alive by acting on it, not just talking about it.

One important way to act on our faith is through solidarity with people in need. Something that is solid is hard to break apart. When we help people in need, we join with them to provide solid support. Jesus stood in solidarity with others when he healed people, forgave them, and showed them God’s love. Following Jesus in our own loving actions keeps our faith alive. Each of us can also stand with others in different ways, because each of us has different gifts to put our faith into action.

The Church helps to gather all our talents and gifts to help people in a bigger way than each of us can do alone. The next time you go to church, look through the parish bulletin to find different ways your Church family is helping those in need. Consider supporting one of those efforts!

Key Word

solidarity Standing with people in need, so they are not alone.

Ask and Receive

A new video game. Patience. Candy. Good health. A parent’s love. A can of soda. Which of these items is something you might need for life or holiness? Which is something you only want, but don’t truly need?

We can always turn to God, our Father, when we are in need. Asking God for our own needs is called a prayer of petition. (A prayer of intercession asks God to help someone else.) But keep in mind that praying for what we need is different from praying for what we want.

God wants what is good for us. He alone knows what we truly need, and he always answers our prayers. But he doesn’t always answer in the way we expect—or in the time we expect. When we look for God in our lives, we can see how he has answered our prayers in different ways.

In today’s reading, Jesus teaches us to ask God for what we need. Why must we ask God for what we need when he already knows everything? Remember that Jesus wants us to have a relationship with God. In any relationship, we grow closer to someone as we talk to and listen to that person. So we also grow closer to God when we talk with him in prayer, even when we ask for something he already knows we need.

Think of something you recently asked God for. Spend a few moments thinking back on your life since you offered that prayer. You might find that God answered your prayer in a way you didn’t expect!

petition A request.

Catholic and Apostolic

What is some recent good news in your life? How did you share that news? Were you excited to share your news?

Jesus’ final command to his followers was to go out and share his Good News. What was Jesus’ Good News? First: God loves us and sent Jesus to us. Second: Jesus gave his life for us, is risen from the dead, and is with us every day.

In a previous lesson, you learned about the Marks of the Church: specifically, our belief that the Church is One and Holy. We also say that the Church is Catholic and Apostolic. The word catholic, with a small c, means “universal.” The Church is catholic because Jesus wanted all people everywhere, in all times, to hear the Good News.

The Church is Apostolic because we can trace it all the way back to the Apostles, whom Jesus sent out to spread the Good News. In today’s reading, we learn that Jesus promised to send his Holy Spirit to give the Apostles the power to go and preach his message. And Jesus kept his promise! The Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles at Pentecost, giving them the ability and courage to share the Good News. That is why we call Pentecost the birthday of the Church.

Today, we also meet Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit in the sacraments, especially Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. The Holy Spirit gives us the power to spread God’s Kingdom on Earth by being peacemakers, praying, and helping one another.

Key Words

catholic Universal, applying to everyone.

Today’s reading reminds those who are sick to ask the Church elders to anoint them with olive oil in Jesus’ name. Many families cook with olive oil, but it is also good for the skin. If you have olive oil, rub a little on your hands. Notice how soft your skin feels afterward. For thousands of years, people have valued olive oil for its ability to soothe and heal.

Jesus spent much of his life healing and comforting sick people. We meet Jesus in every sacrament, but we have two specific Sacraments of Healing. The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation heals our relationships with God and others. The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick helps people who are seriously ill or injured, including older people who experience more illness and physical struggles.

Anointing of the Sick today remains very similar to what Saint James describes! The priest uses Oil of the Sick (olive oil that has been blessed by the bishop) to make a cross on the forehead and hands of the person receiving the sacrament. The priest asks Jesus to send the sick person love, mercy, and strength, through the grace of the Holy Spirit. Then the priest hears the person’s confession, if possible, and forgives his or her sins.

This sacrament does not miraculously heal a person—although it can, if that is God’s will! But it does offer spiritual and emotional healing to help someone cope with a serious illness. In this sacrament, priests and bishops bring us God’s healing love, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Key Word

| anoint | To apply or rub holy oil, as in the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and Anointing of the Sick. |

Share the Good News

Where did you first learn the Good News about Jesus? Some people grow up hearing the Good News from the time they were babies. Other people discover the Good News later in their lives. Now think about all the ways you learn the Good News about Jesus: from the Bible, from your family, during Mass, and from religion classes.

The word gospel even means “good news.” Think about the four Gospels in the New Testament: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. These four books share the Good News about the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus. They pass on all that Jesus came to teach us.

The Holy Spirit came to give the Apostles the power to share the Good News and make new followers of Christ. And the Holy Spirit remains with us today, to give us the courage and the words to share the Gospel. As we learn about Jesus and his message, we share the Good News through our words, when we talk about Jesus. We also share the Good News through our actions, as we live out his teachings.

Think about some ways you can begin to share the Good News. Here are some ideas to get started!

1. Learn more about Jesus in your religious classes and other groups.

If everyone were merciful and kind, how would the world be different? If everyone were pure of heart and avoided sin, how would the world be different? If everyone tried to be a peacemaker, how would the world be different?

These qualities, from today’s reading, come from a longer text of Jesus’ teachings called the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are eight attitudes and behaviors that tell us who to be and how to treat one another, to develop lasting happiness. He especially asks us to show God’s mercy to the poor and vulnerable, who can’t even think about what they want because they are so worried about meeting their needs.

Think about the toys that made you happy when you were younger. Often, that toy you had to have when you were in kindergarten does not appeal to you, now that you are a bigger kid. But now you may want something else! We grow and change, and this is good. But this means that most things in life make us happy in only a temporary way. Think back on our earlier lessons about wants and needs. A piece of candy makes you happy for a moment, but the love you share with your family is lasting.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus is teaching us about lasting happiness, a kind of happiness that comes from the kind of person we are, not from the things we have. We can’t change the whole world. But we can change who we are and our own attitudes. Lasting happiness comes from loving God and our neighbor. When we open our hearts and share God’s mercy and peace with others, we can be truly happy!

Key Word

Beatitudes Jesus’ teachings about ways to love God and our neighbor that will bring us permanent happiness.

Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

Everyone loves praise! When you do well on a test, you like it when your teacher praises you. When your parents make an especially tasty dinner, they like to hear that you enjoyed it. When your brother or sister scores a goal, they feel good when you congratulate them. Everyone needs to hear praise.

Did you know we also need to praise God? We bless and praise God for many different reasons. A prayer of praise to God is also called a prayer of blessing. In today’s reading, we praise and bless God for being kind, for forgiving us, for healing us, and for filling our lives with good things. Many other prayers praise God for his creation: the sun, the moon, the water, the air we breathe, and all the animals and plants.

We can praise God in many different ways. We can shout or sing praise. We can also praise God through our actions, such as when we help our parents, show kindness to a classmate, or pray for someone in need. The Mass is one of our most important ways to praise God. The entire Mass is one prayer of praise and thanksgiving, during which we sing, listen, and pray together.

We should include praise for God whenever we talk to him in prayer. When we pray to God, we show him we are his children. Alleluia! Praise the Lord! Glory to God in the highest!

Key Word

Alleluia Means “Praise the Lord!”

Heroes of the Church

Perhaps you have seen movies about superheroes who use amazing powers to help people. Did you know that the Church has heroes, too? We call our heroes saints.

Saints are holy people who have lived good lives, following God and helping others. The saints love God because he provides for us and cares for us like a shepherd—just as today’s reading describes. We can also become saints, or holy people, if we follow God as our shepherd.

Just like we look up to superheroes, we can also look up to the saints and use their lives as examples to follow. The saints show us how to be good people: how to help others, how to pray, and how to love God. By doing these things, we can one day become saints as well. God wants us all to become saints!

We can always ask the saints to pray for us. We can pray to specific saints by name, or we can ask all the saints, together, to ask God to help us be happy, healthy, and faithful. We celebrate the saints in a special way—even those whose names we don’t know—on All Saints’ Day, which we celebrate every November 1. On this Feast of All Saints, we remember all good and holy people who now live with God in Heaven.

Who is your patron saint? Talk to your saint today, and ask him or her to pray for you and guide you as you work to become a hero of the Church.

Key Word

saints  Holy people who have lived good lives, following God and helping others.

Come, Lord Jesus

During Advent, you will probably see a big wreath with four candles in your church building. Your family might have an Advent wreath in your home. An Advent wreath is a way to help us count the weeks until we celebrate the birthday of Jesus at Christmas. Each Sunday, for four weeks before Christmas, we light one candle on the wreath.

The colors of the wreath are important. The evergreen branches remind us that God’s love and care are always alive and fresh. Three candles are purple, a color that reminds us of preparation, waiting, and repentance for our sins. On the third Sunday of Advent, we light the pink candle, which reminds us to be joyful and happy because Christmas is almost here.

Finally, the yellow flames of the lit candles remind us that Jesus is the light of the world. He shows us the way and keeps us from wandering in the darkness. When we follow him, we share his light and love with others.

The word Advent means “coming.” Lighting each candle on the Advent wreath is a wonderful reminder that the Light of Christ is coming soon. Come, Lord Jesus, come!

Key Word

Advent  Means “coming”; the season of the Church year when we prepare for the celebration of Christmas and the coming of Christ among us.

Follow the Star

Recall the words of the “We Three Kings” Christmas carol: “Bearing gifts we traverse afar / field and fountain, moor and mountain / following yonder star.” In ancient times, people believed that a new star in the sky meant that a king had been born. The Three Kings, or Wise Men, studied the stars. So when they saw a special new star, they decided to follow it, bearing gifts for the new king.

It took a long time for them to reach Jesus, because they traveled by camel in a caravan. But when they finally reached the house where Joseph, Mary, and the Child Jesus were, these kings offered him their precious gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. We celebrate this on the Feast of the Epiphany.

In the Scripture passage we read today, the prophet Isaiah foretells the coming of a Savior. He says that all peoples will come to Jesus Christ, who is the light of the world, the true light who shines in the darkness.

Jesus is both God and a human being. This is what we celebrate during the Christmas season. This is a great mystery, something we cannot fully understand. But we know Jesus’ birth was special. God loves us so much that he wants to share everything with us—so he became one of us when he was born as a baby!

We receive God’s light at Baptism, when the priest lights our baptismal candle from the Easter candle. Because of Baptism, we carry Jesus’ light within us. How can you share the light of his love with someone today?

Key Words

- caravan Group of people traveling together for safety and support.
- mystery Something difficult or impossible to fully understand or explain.
- traverse To travel.

Mary, Pray for Us

Your parents will always love you, no matter how old you are. They spent your first weeks worrying about how much you were eating and sleeping. These days they probably help you learn new skills in school, sports, and other activities. When you are grown, your parents will be eager to know about your family and friends, your work, and the things you love. And they will pray for your health and happiness all your life.

Parents love, care about, and worry about their children. So imagine how Mary felt when Simeon told her, “Sorrow, like a sharp sword, will break your own heart” (Luke 2:35). He had just proclaimed that Jesus would be the light and salvation of the world. But now he was telling Mary, personally, that her life as Jesus’ mother would be especially difficult and sorrowful.

Mary’s motherhood began when she said yes to the Angel Gabriel and accepted God’s plan for her. Now, prepared by Simeon’s warning, Mary continued to trust God and to follow the path laid out for her. For all these reasons, Mary is our model of faith and trust.

Mary experienced the joy and the pain of being Jesus’ mother. So she understands our own moments of happiness and of challenge. Today, ask Mary to pray for you, so that you might be able to cope with your own difficulties and stay faithful to the will of God.

Key Word
sorrow Deep and profound sadness or grief.

Praise Be to God!

When Jesus entered Jerusalem to celebrate Passover, the people welcomed him as their King. On that first Palm Sunday, they laid palm branches and even their cloaks on the ground to greet him humbly and joyfully.

Jesus is our King who saved us—not by fighting, but by giving up his life on the cross. Today, we still celebrate Palm Sunday on the Sunday before Easter. On Palm Sunday, we begin Holy Week by remembering Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem. In church, the priest blesses palm branches and gives them to us as a holy reminder of all that Jesus did for us. During Holy Week, we remember that Jesus gave his life to save us.

On Palm Sunday, we take the blessed palms home and put them in a special place where we can see them. Some people even weave them into crosses, fish, or other crafts to remind us of Jesus’ love, his Passion and death, and his miracles.

But as the people showed us on that first Palm Sunday, palms are signs of victory. The palm branch reminds us to be strong and victorious in times of trouble, and to remember that God loves us so much that he sent his Son to save us. Let us shout now, with the people of Jerusalem: Jesus comes in the name of the Lord! Praise be to God!

Key Words

- Holy Week The week before Easter when we remember the Last Supper and Jesus’ suffering and death on the cross.
- Passion Jesus’ suffering after his arrest.

☐ Ask your child these questions:
  • Who was in the boat fishing? (the disciples)
  • What did Jesus ask them? (See verse 5.)
  • How did Jesus help them catch fish? (He told them to cast their nets on the right side of the boat.)
  • Who recognized Jesus? (the disciple whom Jesus loved)
☐ Read the Understand It!, Live It!, and Tell It! sections on page 1707 of The Catholic Children’s Bible.
☐ Invite your child to complete the activity on page 2 of the Easter activity booklet. Answers will vary.

☐ Choose one of the Family Activities on page 4 of the Easter activity booklet to complete this week.
☐ Conclude by praying the Family Prayer on page 4 of the Easter activity booklet, or use the prayer service on page 3 of the activity booklet. Consider preparing a small table with items that represent spring and new life: flowers, eggs, pictures of baby animals, and so on. Invite your child to pretend to be a seed by crouching in a ball during the Reader portions, and have your child jump up to “bloom” as a flower for every “Alleluia” response.
Fishers of People

Anyone who fishes can tell you that they are always looking for ways to improve their success. They look for the right gear and the tastiest bait. They scout out ponds and creeks where fish bite especially well. They know the times of day when fish are hungriest.

So what how can we improve our success as “fishers of people,” as Jesus called us to be as his followers? We must find ways to teach others, and to be kind and loving. We must always find new ways to spread the Good News that Jesus is alive and loves us. As followers of Jesus who celebrate his Resurrection, we too must “catch” people for God through our loving words and actions every day.

The Gospels tell us that even after the Resurrection, Jesus spent time with his disciples and continued to teach them, as he did in today’s reading. The fishing trip in today’s reading took place after Jesus’ Resurrection, and that is why his followers did not recognize him at first. But once he performed the miracle and showed them where to catch the most fish, the disciple he loved most recognized him: “It is the Lord!” (John 21:7).

We celebrate Jesus’ Resurrection in a special way during the Easter season, which lasts fifty days, from Easter to Pentecost. In the northern hemisphere, we celebrate Easter in the spring, so all the new life and budding flowers remind us of the new life of Jesus’ Resurrection. And we go back to praising the Lord with a special, joyful word that we stopped saying during Lent: Alleluia!

Key Word

Resurrection Jesus’ rising from the dead on the third day.

Peace with Us

What does peace mean to you? What do you think a peaceful world looks like? What does it mean to carry peace in your heart? In today’s reading, Jesus is talking to his followers before he returns to Heaven. He promises to leave them his peace. And he promises to send a Helper, a guide who will always be with us.

That Helper is the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus fulfilled his promise on Pentecost, when he sent the Holy Spirit to fill Mary and the disciples, who were gathered together. They were afraid to go out to share the Good News about Jesus, as he had commanded them. But the Holy Spirit filled them with courage and strength!

We often call Pentecost the birthday of the Church, because this was the beginning of the Church’s mission. On Pentecost, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples. Guided and made brave by the Holy Spirit, Jesus’ followers went out to share the Good News and to teach people to live how Jesus wants us to live.

The Holy Spirit remains with us always. Because of our Baptism, we carry the Holy Spirit within us. The Holy Spirit connects us to the rest of the Trinity: God the Father and God the Son (Jesus). The Holy Spirit continues to guide us and help us understand what Jesus taught. Pray to the Holy Spirit today, and ask for guidance in learning how to bring peace to all you meet.

Childlike for Jesus

How do you love your parents? Hopefully you love and trust them with your whole heart and without question. Jesus wants us to love him the same way. He even says that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to us when we trust God as little children do!

Today’s reading is one Scripture story that we might read during a special Church season called Ordinary Time. The word ordinary sometimes means “average,” but here we are saying that these weeks are “counted time.” We call the Sundays of Ordinary Time “second,” “third,” and so on, right up to “thirty-third” (and some years, “thirty-fourth”). These are called ordinal numbers, and so this is Ordinary Time.

But it is not ordinary in any other way! During Ordinary Time, we learn more about Jesus’ active ministry. We come to know about his miracles and his teachings, such as today’s reading about Jesus welcoming children and teaching us to trust God like children do.

Ordinary Time occurs twice in the Church year. The first period of Ordinary Time falls between the end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Lent. The second period runs from Pentecost (the end of the Easter season) through the beginning of Advent. During Ordinary Time, the priest’s vestments and altar cloths are green, because green signifies life and growth. We grow in our faith by learning about Jesus’ life and teachings. In today’s reading, Jesus called us all to talk and pray with him. What will you talk to him about in your bedtime prayers tonight?

Key Word

Ordinary Time  Sundays and weeks in the Church year that are counted by ordinal numbers: first, second, third, and so on.
