

Commitment Card

Knowing that God is calling me into a vocation of service, I commit to . . .

- spending one minute each day in silence, to listen to God's voice calling to me
- remaining open to whatever vocation God is calling me to—marriage, priesthood, religious life, or the committed single life
- looking for the little ways I can serve others in my daily life

Name _____

Knowing that God is calling me into a vocation of service, I commit to . . .

- spending one minute each day in silence, to listen to God's voice calling to me
- remaining open to whatever vocation God is calling me to—marriage, priesthood, religious life, or the committed single life
- looking for the little ways I can serve others in my daily life

Name _____

