Essay

- A. Name the three degrees or orders of the ordained ministry, and give two responsibilities for the members of each order.
- The three degrees or orders are bishop, priest, and deacon.
 - The responsibilities of a bishop include: (1) to be the visible head of a particular diocese; (2) to determine the assignment for each priest in his diocese; (3) as a member of the college of bishops, to care for the entire Church under the authority of the Pope; (4) to represent Christ as a teacher, shepherd, and priest; and (5) to participate in the ordination and consecration of a new bishop.
 - The responsibilities of a priest include: (1) to be a coworker of the bishop; (2) to look to the bishop for guidance in his pastoral assignment and duties; (3) to help and advise the bishop; (4) to be responsible for a particular Church; (5) and to share with the bishop in the authority of Christ himself building up, making holy, and ruling his Body, the Church.
 - The responsibilities of a deacon include: (1) to serve the Church by assisting at the liturgy, especially in the Eucharist; (2) to proclaim the Gospel and preach; (3) to distribute Communion; (4) to baptize, assist at, and bless marriages; (5) to preside over funerals; (6) and to serve those who are poor or in need.
