

Honoring God

Read each of the following statements and determine whether they represent true or false statements, based on your understanding of the first three Commandments.

1. You honor God by becoming successful.
2. You honor God by believing that objects, such as good-luck charms, contain magical power.
3. You honor God by objecting to people's poking fun at Catholic objects or actions.
4. You honor God by praying to a statue of a saint.
5. You honor God by saying "Oh my God!" or "Jesus Christ!"
6. You honor God by praising and glorifying his name at a school liturgy.
7. You honor God by wondering if he even exists.
8. You honor God by recognizing the need for an appropriate amount of leisure time.
9. You honor God by insisting that all you need do to fulfill your worship obligations is to pray in the privacy of your home.
10. You honor God by resisting false advertisements that promise happiness and fulfillment.

