

Name _____

Defining Sin

Rebellion

How does this concept from the Old Testament define sin?

Write down a Scripture verse(s) that gives an example of sin as rebellion. Include the Scripture citation.

What is the motivation for rebellion against God?

What are the consequences of rebellion against God?

Missing the Mark

How does this concept from the Old Testament define sin?

Write down a Scripture verse(s) that gives an example of sin as missing the mark. Include the Scripture citation.

What are the motivations for missing the mark that God sets for us?

What are the consequences of missing the mark that God sets for us?

Trespass or Transgression against God's Law

How does this concept from both the Old and New Testaments define sin?

Write down a Scripture verse(s) that gives an example of sin as trespass or transgression. Include the Scripture citation.

What are motivations for transgressing against God's Law?

What are the consequences of lawless communities?

Light and Truth versus Darkness and Sin

Why is darkness a meaningful metaphor for sin?

Write down a Scripture verse(s) that gives an example of sin as darkness or the distortion of truth. Include the Scripture citation.

Why is every sin a lie against truth?

What are the consequences of choosing the darkness of sin over the light of truth?

