Essay

- A. Explain the theological concept of merit. How can one gain it?
- Merit is God's reward to those who love him and follow Christ's Law of Love. To have merit is to be justified in the sight of God, free from sin, and sanctified by his grace. It is a free gift from God due to the grace of Christ within us. We may gain merit by responding with faith in Jesus Christ and becoming collaborators in God's saving work.
- B. What are three laws or codes that can be found in the Torah? Briefly describe each.
- One of the laws is the Covenant Code. These laws follow the Ten Commandments and address slavery, personal injury, property damage, money, religious practices, and punishment for breaking laws. Second, there is the Priestly Code, which deals with religious concerns, including instructions for proper worship. Third, there is the Holiness Code, whose central theme for all is "Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy" (Leviticus 19:2).
- C. What are the conditions that must be present to make a sin a mortal sin?
- To be a mortal sin, an act must involve grave matter, the person must have full knowledge of the evil of the act, and the person must give full consent to the act.
