Essay

- A. What is the Second Commandment, and what does it call us to do?
- These are the words of the Second Commandment: "You should not take the name of the Lord your God in vain." The Second Commandment calls us to revere God by our every word and action, especially by keeping his name holy and by keeping our promises.
- B. Why did the first Jewish Christians begin to celebrate their holy day on Sunday?
- Sunday is the day of Christ's Resurrection. The followers of Jesus saw Sunday not only as the first day of God's creation of the world but also as the symbolic "first day" of the new creation, or new beginning in the history of salvation, that begins with Christ's Resurrection.
