

Temptation and Grace Answer Key

1. "No one experiencing temptation should say, 'I am being tempted by God'; for God is not subject to temptation to evil, and he himself tempts no one. Rather, each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire" (James 1:13–14).

Why does James say that our desires are a source of temptation?

- James wants us to take personal responsibility when we succumb to temptation and sin. Temptation comes when we desire something that isn't good for us or for others. These desires do not come from God but are the result of Original Sin and an immoral society.

2. "No trial has come to you but what is human. God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial he will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it" (1 Corinthians 10:13).

How do you resist temptation and face difficulties in life?

- Paul is telling the Corinthians that we can overcome temptation with God's help. Yes, we will be tempted, but our temptations will not be so powerful that we cannot overcome them if we rely on God and the gifts he provides to help us.

3. "Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help that God gives us to respond to his call to become children of God, adoptive sons, partakers of the divine nature and of eternal life"<sup>1</sup> (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1996).

How do you experience grace, that is, the gift of God's loving and active presence in your life?

- Answers will vary.
