

ritual clothing

The dress and demeanor of people involved in rituals tell us much about what the activity is all about. Discuss with your group each of the situations below and write your thoughts in the space provided.

1. Why would a school have a tradition of not allowing the players' names to be printed on their jersey or not allowing symbols of individual accomplishment to be marked on their helmet?

2. What do the various military uniforms represent?

3. Why do people dress up for proms and dances?

4. What type of clothing is often worn at graduations?

5. Why do presiders, acolytes, and choir members wear different kinds of robes during worship?

6. How does the dress of the assembly reflect its sense of identity?
