The Bible: The Living Word of God

Experiencing the Old Testament Covenant

Read Genesis 9:1–17 and Genesis 15:1–21. Then respond to the following writing prompts, using an extra sheet of paper if needed.

1. Write a first-person account from the perspective of either Noah or Abraham, retelling his experience at the time of the covenant. Include details about how he felt, fears and questions he might have had, and the faith that ultimately led him to trust in God.

2. Write a third-person account reporting on Noah's and Abraham's experiences. Write from an outside observer's perspective, as if you are simply a witness reporting on Noah and Abraham, without any direct knowledge of them or the chance to hear first-hand accounts from them. What are the most compelling things you would want your reader to know?
