

“Field of Dreams”

The movie Field of Dreams is a modern-day parable that teaches some powerful lessons and connects with the major concepts in chapter 1 of the textbook. Ray Kinsella hears voices that tell him to build a baseball field in the middle of his prime farmland. As you watch the movie, look for and make note of specific examples that illustrate the following concepts from the chapter:

- sacramental awareness

- sacramental blindness

- grace

- flesh-and-blood communication

- God speaking through friendships

- listening for God

- responding to God
