

Song of Songs

For each characteristic of Hebrew poetry below, identify a passage in the Song of Songs that is an example of it and write a brief explanation of how your choice illustrates the characteristic:

Metaphor:

Personification:

Simile:

Repetition:

Interpret the allegory of the relationship between God and Israel as it is presented in Song of Songs 2:10–12, considering the historical period when it was written.

