

A Vision of Dry Bones

Read Ezekiel 37:1–14 and then respond to the following questions.

What is the message of Ezekiel’s dry bones vision?

How can that message be applied today?

What current situations can prompt some people to ask, “What difference can one person make?”

What happens when people feel hopeless and anxious?

A great temptation today is to think it is impossible to make peace, to repair the damage done to our planet, to help the poor, to feed the hungry, or to protect all our children. Do you know people who have succumbed to these feelings? Do you ever feel this way?

Using Ezekiel’s message of the dry bones, write a message of encouragement to someone who is feeling hopeless about what they can do to make a difference in the world.
