God and Suffering

1. Describe a situation of suffering or evil in our world.

2. In the space below, draw overlapping circles to create a Venn diagram. One side should read "A Loving God," and the other side should read "Suffering and Evil." Show how God is present in the situation you described. Fill in the space in which the two circles overlap with specific situations in which good can be found, such as through acts of kindness and support. List as many examples of good that you can think of.
