

What Will God Call Me to Do?

Reflections on the Video Gang Busters: One Man's Mission to Stop Bullets by Creating Jobs

Now that you have seen the video, reflect on and answer these questions in preparation for a class discussion.

What image from the video is most memorable for you? Why?

How did Father Greg's family and education help to prepare him for his future ministry working with gangs?

Which of the necessary personal qualities for a priest described in the student book did you observe in Father Greg?

A priest is one who is called to be a mediator between God and humanity. In what ways do you think Fr. Greg Boyle fulfills this mission (whether shown in the video or not)?

Does it surprise you that a priest can be involved in a nontraditional type of ministry? Explain.

Did this video inspire you to want to get more involved in helping others? Explain.

Are you open to a call to be a “mediator between God and humanity”? How might you exercise this call in ways other than the priesthood?

Do you believe that God has a special call in store for you? Why or why not?

What questions does this video raise for you about priesthood, about God’s call to us, or about any other topic?
