

Movie: A Life Devoted to the Poor

Answer these questions after viewing the movie about a person known for imitating Jesus by showing love for the poor.

1. Why is the hero of the movie well known? What significant difference did this disciple make in the world?
2. What led the person to his or her special calling in life—other people, events, experiences, upbringing?
3. For whom did the hero make the greatest difference? Why do you suppose this is?
4. What obstacles or criticisms did the disciple encounter similar to what Jesus met as he carried out his ministry?
5. How did living out the Gospel cause the disciple to be countercultural? Did his or her life affect politics? If so, how?

