

Fiddler on the Roof

Margin Notes	Questions for Discussion
Tevye: Father Golde: Mother Hodel: Daughter Perchik: student radical Add your own film notes in this margin.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li data-bbox="526 338 1463 394">1. What observations did you make about the relationship between parents and children in Fiddler on the Roof based on their conversations with one another?<li data-bbox="526 558 1235 588">2. In what ways does Hodel show respect and gratitude for Tevye?<li data-bbox="526 751 1317 781">3. How do Hodel, Perchik, and Tevye see their duties and responsibilities?<li data-bbox="526 915 1474 972">4. How does Tevye show his respect for Hodel's growing sense of freedom, and why was this difficult for him?<li data-bbox="526 1136 1409 1192">5. Based on your conversation with your parents, how has the relationship between children and parents changed since they were children?<li data-bbox="526 1327 1463 1383">6. What factors in our society challenge family life and have an effect on the relationship between parents and children?<li data-bbox="526 1568 1057 1598">7. How do traditions help to strengthen family life?

