

Living the Call of Vatican Council II

The document Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World (Gaudium et Spes, 1965) looks at the needs of modern society. Among the issues addressed at the Vatican Council II were the dignity of the human person, the necessity of community, and human beings' relationship to the universe.

Next to the three terms listed below, tell what that particular call means to you in how you live your life, and then tell how you can more fully respond to the call.

Dignity of the human person

Necessity of community

Relationship to the universe

Briefly write about how you can help others, through your words or actions, to live out the call to honor the dignity of the human person.

