

meeting the needs of sick people

The chapter pointed out that sickness and healing occur within a community context. Think about this concept as you answer the five questions below.

1. What are the needs of persons who are seriously ill?

2. How might the needs of persons who are seriously ill be met? Who can help meet these needs?

3. What are the needs of the family of a person who is seriously ill?

4. How might the needs of the family be met? Who can help meet their needs?

5. What role can the church's sacrament of Anointing play in meeting the needs of sick people and their families?
